

Paradise Pudding

If you have a good Pudding pray mind what you are taught

Take 4 pennyworth of Eggs & have twelve for a groat

Take of the fruit which Eve once did cozen

Wile pared & wile chopped at least half a dozen

Six ounces of Bread, let the maids eat the crust

The Bread must be grated as fine as fine dust

Six ounces of currants pray pick them quite clean

Least they grit in your teeth you know what I mean

Six ounces of Sugar must make it too sweet

Some Salt & some Nutmeg to make it compleat

And then you may add if you are willing & handy

Some good lemon peel & a large glass of Brandy

And then serve it up with some good milled B(?)kes
