A Cook House maid, or House-Maid Cook, is wanted, for the service of a single gentleman, where only one other, a Manservant is kept. The age of the Woman must not be less than .25. nor more than .40. years, and it is requisite that she should be equally excellent in the two capacities of Cook and House maid, her Character must be unexceptionable for sobriety, honesty and cleanliness. The sobriety, however which consists in drinking deep without staggering, will not do. Nor will the honesty suffice which would make up for the (?) absence of pilfering by waste. Neither will the cleanliness answer which content with bustling only before the employers eyes – a sure symptom of a slattern. The servant advertised for must be thoroughly and truly cleanly, honest, and sober. As it is probable that not a drab out of place who reads this advertisement but will be for imposing herself, tho’ perhaps incapable of cooking a sprat and about as nice as a Hottentot, all such are warned not to give themselves useless trouble. On the other hand, a steady, clever Woman, really answering the above description, will, by applying as below, hear of a place not easily equalled in comfort, where the Wages are good, and constantly increasing, and where Servants are treated as fellow creatures, and with a kindness which, to the discredit of their class, is seldom merited. ---

Personal application to be made, from One to Three O’Clock, to Mrs. Danver, Perfumier No. 16 – Craven Street, Strand ----
